AUSTRALIAN FILM TELEVISION AND RADIO SCHOOL

SCHOOLS PROGRAM 2012

Filmmaking workshops for students

‘The facilities were excellent. The teacher was great. It was very memorable for the students.’
– Teresa Urlich, Mosman High School

AFTRS Schools Program 2012 offers an exciting range of practical filmmaking workshops which complement both primary and secondary classroom teaching.

AFTRS OPEN workshops cover filmmaking, digital animation, claymation, editing, screenwriting and more. Our courses extend the primary syllabus, particularly Creative Arts, and are suitable for secondary students studying Media, Drama, English, Visual Arts and TAS.

AFTRS is Australia’s leading screen arts and broadcast school. Many of our graduates, from Jane Campion to PJ Hogan, have gone on to become established in the Australian and international film industries. All our tutors are industry experts. Our workshops are held at our state-of-the-art facility at The Entertainment Quarter, Moore Park, Sydney – or at your school.
All workshops include an optional tour of our film and radio studios. We can also offer customised workshops for schools with particular areas of interest.
